Dear Friends,

Janna and I wish you a blessed Easter and a grateful thank you for your generous letters, prayers and gifts to our lives and ministries. While I write this, Janna is on her first long ministry trip since Covid. Some of you will be seeing her, and she is excited to be with you.

Thank you especially for your prayers for my interaction with these ladies with whom I live. I have always felt that I am a very inadequate evangelist, but the Lord has given some new opportunities to share His Control and promised Coming due to our world situation. I have been reminded of Walt's paragraph in his 2012 Easter letter:

Someone once said, "Live each day as though it were your last." You do not plan your life or budget your days. You do not own your life, and you do not control your destiny. For this reason, you are best served living each day with the attitude, "Lord, what do You wish this worthless slave of Yours to do?"

It seems the prevailing attitude among most of our residents is that they are "in the Land of the Living going into the land of the dying" instead of being "in the land of the dying going into the Land of the Living." Oh Lord, help me to be faithful to share your Word.

You all mean so much to Janna and me. Thank you for co-laboring with us.

Leette

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer." (Psalm 19:14)
